WALTON.

K. E. Schuyler and his aid, Ralph Rayce, dined at Mt. Elizabeth Xmas day.

Service will be held in St. Paul's church the coming Sabbath, December 31st, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. Stephen F. Reed officiating. All are invited to be present.

Mr. Ingalls, formerly of Mexico, is stopping at the Inn, also Mr. Hopper, of Hutchinson, Kansas. These gentlemen have been inspecting the St. Lucie Gardens with a view of locating a small colony. On their departure said they would return in January with twenty men.

Messrs. Crosby and Wynn, of Montana, are guests of the Coldron Land Co., and are investigating lands for sale. Both gentlemen are highly pleased with this locality, and in all their travels have never seen any spot to compare with it and will soon become buyers and start fine homes for the future.

Reginald Waters has been making another of those visits for which he is noted, one of fifteen minutes length, arriving on the 2 a. m. train Saturday and returning to his duties on the 10:40 p. m. train the 25th. His colony of friends were delighted to see the young man looking so well and in such a happy frame of mind.

Dr. Allen, Dr. B. B. Williamson and wife, were recent guests registered at the Inn. The gentlemen are prominent dentists representing the Caty Dental Co., having nine offices in New York State. The party arrived from New York to Savannah by steamship, proceeding the remainder of the way by automobile to Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are "Simon Pure" pedestrians. In the last week they took train to Fort Pierce but walked the distance on their return. A day or so later they walked to White City and after doing the town returned to Walton in the same manner and did not seem fatigued by the effort. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are recent purchasers of land in the St. Lucie Gardens. Their bungalow is now under process of building.

The "Everglades," palatial house boat, belonging to Colonel Thompson, of New York, was anchored at the city wharf for some time Thursday afternoon, while messengers were dispatched on shore for friends to come aboard and in the few moments of its stay tea should be brewed and served by the attendants in honor of the Mrs. Garrison, sister and niece of the owner, who were on board. What a travesty of fortune that if you cannot go to your friends, your friends can supply all deficiency and come to you. Not all are blessed in that way.

A. M. Sample and little daughter, Miss Margaret, were calling in town Saturday morning, motoring down from Fort Pierce in the famous Cadillac of the Glidden Tour fame as the only car with a clear record in the memorable trip from New York to Jacksonville. The chauffeur, Mr. Robertson, was accompanied by his wife and sister, Mrs. and Miss Robertson. Mrs. Lennard was shown how to manipulate the car and thought that after some experience she would be able to control the same as easily as the Minus engine on the Mizpah.

A farewell feast of good things and the presence of many friends made the remaining hours of R. V. T. Waters' stay more like a dream than a reality. What had promised to be a somewhat dreary waiting for the last goodbyes, passed quickly in the thoughtfulness that had made lavish preparations for comfort and amusement surrounded by those near and dear, with outside friends the time passed all too quickly and parting words were hardly expressed before the hero had vanished, while those that were left were the most to be pitied, but the promise of a quick return mitigated the grief that at one time seemed unavoidable.

Xmas eve was well enjoyed in numerous ways by the entire population of Walton. However the largest gathering was at Linwood when Master Hallows dispensed hospitality in a remarkable manner considering his age. A fine tree well stocked with the regulation Christmas fruit having the acme of splendor. All the little friends of the older ones were remembered in the distribution. Conversation, music and refreshments helped the hours to pass in rapid order and Xmas was ushered in before the company realized that the world's holiday was at hand. Hastily bidding the host adieu the guests were soon homeward bound having passed a delightful evening but were ready to make way for the coming of the expected guest and loved companion of all childhood.

E. B. Sembler spent the week-end in Sebastian.

E. A. Holt transacted business in Sebastian on Thursday.

J. R. Leatherman, of Oakton, Va., is expected in town during the week.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sembler, Thursday, Dec. 21, a fine little girl.

E. J. Davis and family spent Christmas at Viking, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barker.

Quite a number of Wabassonians spent Christmas Day on the beach at News cut, east of Sebastian.

Messrs. Geo. and Frank Sears and F. W. Wray left Tuesday for a week's fishing trip to St. Lucie Inlet.

Mrs. Eugenia Fair left Saturday night for home in Port Orange, where she will spend the Holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. James Asher went to Palm Beach the last of the week to spend the Holidays with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young returned Sunday from Eau Gallie, where they spent several days with Mr. Young's parents.

The Christmas Exercises at the school house Saturday evening were well attended and much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Beeghly and children, of Jacksonville, arrived here Sunday in their automobile, and will spend sometime here with friends.

Work was begun on the addition to the school house the first of the week and after the vacation we will have another room and assistant teacher, both very necessary to carry on the work in the school.

Miss Cora Webb, of Knoxville, Tenn., arrived here Wednesday evening and will spend sometime with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith. Miss Webb has spent several winters here and has many friends who are always glad to see her return.

STUART.

Wm. McFarlan, of East Downington, Pa., is here for another winter.

O. O. Poppleton left this week for Miami and the Keys to attend his bees.

Miss Su Hopkins a former principal of our school is spending a few days with friends in town.

J. G. Dunscombe, of New York, spent few days last week and this with his son and daughter.

R. L. Beville is moving his family to Arch Creek this week. He has been appointed station agent at that place.

Rev. Neil McQuarrie spent Christmas with his family here. He was accompanied by Prof. and Mrs. Clark, of Arch Creek.

LeRoy Ricou and Frank Bartlett are spending the holidays with their parents here. The former is a student in the University of Florida and the latter at Southern College in Southland.

School closed Friday for two weeks vacation. The teachers, the Misses Helseth, Geiger and DeVault are spending the holidays in Oslo, Cocoa and West Palm Beach, respectively.

Pineapple Camp No. 150, W. O. W., elected the following officers at their last meeting: K. H. Bentel, consul commander; W. L. Baker, banker; J. R. Pomeroy, clerk; H. A. Carlisle, escort; H. Simpson, watchman; C. L. Beville, sentry; A. T. Hogarth, manager for three year term and Dr. W. E. VanLandingham, physician.

H. A. Carlisle met with what might have been a serious accident the other day. He was making a fire in the stove and poured about a cupful of what he thought was kerosene oil over the wood, but by some mistake the oil can had been filled with gasoline and when he applied the match there was such a burst of flame that he was badly burned about the face, neck and hands.

The Ideal
Reading Lamp

Opticians agree that the light from a good oil lamp is easier on the eyes than any other artificial light.

The Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made.

It gives a strong, yet soft, white light; and it never flickers. It preserves the eyesight of the young; it helps and quickens that of the old.

You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for other lamps, but you cannot get better light than the low-priced Rayo gives.

Made of solid brass, nickel-plated. Easily lighted, without removing shade or chimney. Easy to clean and rewick.

Dealers everywhere; or write for descriptive circular direct to any agency of the
